

Under Sharjah Airport International Free Zone, the following licenses are required:

Commercial License

- It allows the holder to import items specified in the license. Maximum limit of three similar product lines.

General Trading License

- It allows the holder to trade a larger number of products lines than the Commercial License.

Service License

- It allows the holder to carry out the service specified in the license.

Industrial License

- It allows the holder to import raw material, carry out manufacturing, processing, assembling, packaging and export the finished product.

Note: Every license has different costs. Healy Consultants can provide an accurate quotation after agreeing with client's specific business needs. All government fees are to be supported by invoice.